Data Protection / Privacy Policy

The Ring of Kerry Charity Cycle CLG (the “ROKCC”) is a company limited by guarantee registered at Allman House, 19/20 Allmans Terrace, Rock Road, Killarney Co. Kerry V93 PW01. The ROKCC is committed to keeping your information secure and managing it in accordance with our legal responsibilities under privacy and data protection laws where we operate.

This Data Protection / Privacy Policy provides information about how we process personal information through our website, via Njuko.com, our registration partner (Njuko.com is a product of the company njuko SAS, registered in the Register of Commerce and Companies of Bayonne since March 30, 2012 and are based in Bidart in the Pyrénées Atlantiques (64) SIRET number is 750 866 675 00010 and declared to the CNIL under number 2010350), and iDonate Ltd, (registered in Dublin # 533426) our online fundraising partner.

You should be aware that each time you visit and browse through the ROKCC website (<http://www.ringofkerrycycle.ie/>) we may retain statistical and other analytical information collected on an aggregate and non-individual specific basis. The statistical and analytical information we collect provides us with general and not individually specific information about the number of people who visit the website, the number of people who return to the Website, the pages that they visit, where they were before they came to the website and the page on the website at which they exited. This information helps us monitor traffic on our website so that we can manage the website’s capacity and efficiency.

What information is being collected?

When you register for an event organised by the ROKCC we will collect personal information about you through our online registration platform provided by Njuko.com an EU based General Data Protection Regulation (“GDPR”) compliant data processor that provides certain eTicketing, data processing and hosting applications and platforms to the ROKCC. Details of personal information collected are as follows:

- Your personal details i.e. name, home and/or delivery address, email address, phone number, gender, date of birth and size if applicable for merchandise fulfilment.
- As part of the event registration process, we may also collect medical certification as evidence of pandemic vaccinations and /or of your fitness to participate in the event, where that is appropriate to the event being organised.
- We may also collect your emergency contact details i.e. name, phone number and relationship to you where that is applicable for the event being organised.

- Your credit/debit card details are also collected to facilitate transaction completion and such details are protected by a secure server software that encrypts financial information provided online. It prevents anyone (including the ROKCC) reading your personal and sensitive information while your registration is being processed or thereafter.
- If your voluntary donation is eligible for tax relief, we may subsequently ask you to complete the relevant Revenue form (CHY4 Annual Certification) to enable the ROKCC claim the associated tax refund.

Sensitive categories of data:

If you are injured during the cycle, data regarding your health may be recorded by ROKCC medical volunteers in an incident report form. This data is obtained to arrange appropriate medical treatment and for health and safety and insurance purposes.

How information is used:

Your personal information will be used to:

- Process your registration, donation or merchandise fulfilment and provide e-ticket, receipts and confirmations
- Allow you activate your online iDonate fundraising page and record your event progress, where that is applicable for the event being organised.
- Provide you with important information about the ROKCC event (e.g. bike tag collection, terms & conditions, start /finish information).
- Confirm your identity when you make enquiries about your registration, purchases or donation.
- Provide you with information on how your donation is used.
- Obtain tax relief on your donation.
- Provide health care professionals and emergency services with your personal information in case of emergency.
- Communicate with you about the work that the ROKCC and its main beneficiary charities are undertaking.
- Address any queries, feedback or complaints you may have raised.
- Provide refunds of registration fees, donations and merchandise purchases in certain exceptional circumstances, such as occurred during the Covid-19 pandemic.
- Gather information for internal ROKCC analytical purposes.
- Provide summary non individualised demographic information to existing and future sponsors, as well as for use in promotional material.

Njuko.com, in their role as data processor on behalf of the ROKCC have undertaken to comply at all times with Data Protection Law including the GDPR. Furthermore, Njuko.com are expressly prohibited from selling, transferring, disclosing or otherwise allowing access to any ROKCC registration data to any party other than to its own employees to whom disclosure of data is necessary for the provision of contractual services to the ROKCC.

Security:

We use reasonable organisational, technical and administrative measures to protect personal information within the ROKCC. Unfortunately, no website, online data transmission or storage system can be guaranteed to be 100% secure and we cannot be held responsible for unauthorised, fraudulent or unintended access that is beyond our control. If you have reason to believe that your interaction with us is no longer secure or your information has been compromised, please contact us immediately at privacy@ringofkerrycycle.ie.

Retention Period:

We will retain personal information for a period of 18 months from the date of the ROKCC event in which you last participated, unless a longer retention period is required or permitted by law. This 18 month period currently coincides with reporting requirements under the ROKCC insurance coverages and should that period be extended by insurance providers then the ROKCC reserves the right to extend the retention period accordingly.

How to exercise your information rights:

You have the right to:

- Find out if we use your information, access your information and receive copies of the information that we have about you.
- Request that the information we have about you is corrected and/or updated as necessary.
- Object to particular uses of your personal data (please note that this may have an impact on the services we can provide to you).
- Have your data deleted or have its use restricted, under certain circumstances.
- Obtain a copy of certain data processed by automated means, which can be transferred to another provider ('data portability'). Please note that the extent of portability depends on what is technically feasible.
- Withdraw consent at any time, where any processing is based on consent. If you withdraw your consent, it will not affect the data processing that was done beforehand.
